Verified Purchase. I love Karen Witemeyer's novels. I could so relate to the heroine from Head in the Clouds. The whole concept behind Stealing the Preacher was hilarious. Full Steam Ahead has humor, and it is a light read, but Karen manages to give her characters serious issues that must be addressed.

Full Steam Ahead was such a good read! I've read several of Karen Witemeyer's books and while this one wasn't as funny as some of the others, it was a great story. I loved how Nicole went into hiding while trying to earn enough money to travel to her original destination. That added some suspense because you didn't want the "bad guys" to find her.

I've been a HUGE Karen Witemeyer fan since I first read "A Tailor Made Bride." "Full Steam Ahead" didn't feel like the author I fell for in that first novel. While parts of the story were very good, I didn't connect with the characters as I had in her previous novels. It's something that I can't pinpoint, or put my finger on, but it was ...
